

2007 Expenses Summary

The values depicted in the chart represent summary information taken from the 2007 audit conducted by Pagliuco, Opalacz, & Associates, P.C., Certified Public Accounts. Depreciation is recorded as an annual expense for assets that last the Raiders a number of years and depreciate over time. In 2007 significant additional assets that were purchased includes new cheer uniforms, new football helmets and equipment, and office equipment.